Spelling Rule Exceptions for Plural Nouns: Words That End in Y

A plural noun means more than one. The word table means one table; the word tables means more than one table. To make an English noun plural, we usually (but not always) add an s to the end of the noun. An exception to this rule is if a word ends in y. If the y follows a vowel we change the y to i and add -es. If the y follows a consonant we change the y to i and add -es.

Examples: tray trays
baby babies

Read each word very carefully. Write the plural form of each of the following nouns.

1. bay	11. lady
2. bunny	12. sky
3. story	13. day
4. ray	14. turkey
5. spy	15. try
6. penny	16. monkey
7. play	17. bully
8. boy	18. alley
9. fly	19. library
10. toy	20. stray

Nouns, Verbs and Adjective

Circle the nouns, draw a box around the verbs and underline the adjectives in each sentence.

1. The pink dress has too many pockets.
2. My little brother won the race.
3. We should eat at the Italian restaurant today.
4. I like getting long letters.
5. My old sweater is very comfortable.
6. Martha adores her white cat.
7. Fluffy pancakes taste the best.
8. Tall kids must stand at the back of the line.
9. Our new sofa looks great in our living room.
10. The girl with the green eyes moved here yesterday.
11. She came back because the queue was too long.
12. Thomas asked his big sister to drive him to the stadium.
13. I tried listening to the boring speech but I fell asleep.
14. Robin is scared of big dogs.
