Each scene of this film is really planned if the scene begins to become too long, they will turn it into another scene, so we have no action (I think that the actions and composition of the conversation are balanced.). And then the effects - both 3D and 2D. Perfect. Even if we have only 2 hours to find out the nature of Rengoku, but the feeling of emotions still touched me very much. As if I were crying in the cinema, it is really recommended! But remember that you should watch the 1st season before watching this film.
