This minigame follows the adventures of the Jinkazama as he searches the G Corporation in search for information on his missing mother & other answers. Being somewhat story oriented, player is not permitted to use their own choice of characters like last iterations. The game also uses a limited button system, incorporating a Block & Jump button as well as sizing down the attack buttons to simple "Punch" & "Kick" buttons. Along with fighting different Jack models in the mini-game, player must pursue minor key quests to proceed.
