To avoid this, you should destroy your own village before attacking others. This way, you won't have to fight the same battle again, all the resources you have flown will no longer be available.4.3. Protecting resource reserves is important to build and improve installations to produce and store gold and elixir. However, it © even more important to protect them with defenses. When you are away from your village, other players can attack you, especially if you have large reserves. So if you can't empty all the disconnecting tanks, protect them. Avoid moving the reserves too closely. Before disconnecting, launch the form of several troops in the rear © that consume a lot of elixir:Troops in the back barracks. While reinforcement is busy with your giant, launch your attack in the opposite direction. The idea is © prevent the adversaries, if they survive, from returning quickly to defend themselves while you attack the buildings.7. Don't shoot all your troops from one time only a beginner's mistake © Don't shoot all your troops in one place at a time. In fact, there are several defensive buildings, such as mortars, which do great damage. You may not s e your soldiers again if you send them all in if they are hit by a mortar. Some troops can still absorb much damage and therefore can act as a shield for other weaker soldiers. To learn more about them, we prepared a guide for the Clash of Clans.8 Troops. Improve your military camps, a s the name suggests, are the bases where your soldiers are stationed before going into battle. They are full of abandoned villages with lots of gold and elixir.10. Analyze the attack of the opponent's village that you do should be thought to avoid attacking more than you. Before starting the fight, check the troph©us number your opponent has. If you notice that the trophy ©us number, you will lose A© much higher than the trophy © number that you have, you should think twice before attacking.11. Destroying the opponent's village is a goal, but it is not the only one. There are locations that seem easier for your troops to access? If you can't find one, look for another adversary. When you start, try tosoavAide villages with two mortars. As their troops are still low at level, they can have a lot of damage without actually doing anything possible. The key is © find a significant success with about to three giants and fill the rest of the slots with barbarians or archers. Send your For the walls or defenses of the opposite village. Preferencing, choose a place that is not too full of cannons or towers of archers. The giants will absorb the blows of the defenses and will destroy the walls very quickly. Take advantage of this to deploy your archers, bals or goblins. As you level your municipal cámara, new troops become available and you can update them in laboratory.12.
