Twitter.com/popcornflixnewsFacebook.com/popcornflix 24 August 2021 Version 7.18.608 Get the best free experience to enjoy hollywood top shots and thrillers with our latest popcornflix update for your iPhone and iPad. We want to help you find your next favorite movie or show. Bug corrections and improvements This updateÂ € s will help make the experience even better. This has a lot of content varieties. The problem is that it is really difficult to find what you want. There is no search function. While there are categories, organized arena t, not even in alphabetical order within a category. And there is no watch list so you can't find and tags something to look later. Also the categories Arena T consistent between the iPad application and the Apple TV application. I found something about one that I couldn't find it on the other. If you donate tens your search a lot, youÂ € ll find some content of nostalgic fun. This application is done exclusively to watch pulse. ThereÂÄ ¢ s no watchlist to save the titles for future viewing. ThereÂÄ ¢ s No search function in the version for Apple TV to find movies you might want to see. ThereÂÄ ¢ s even without alphabetical or organization; Only titles in random order by category. This makes it terribly inefficient for occupied viewers. For example, if you find a movie is available on popcornflix using an app as your own watch, it may take hours to actually find the movie in the popcornflix version app.The iOS permissions to record an account, but, since the Apple TV version does not contain a means sign in and nor the version allows a watchlist, recording in the iOS version it is useless. The application is not simply ready for the debut. I wanted to watch the horror Found Footage film called VHS and VHS 2 but the VHS 2 was strange. It had all the audio except for human voices throughout the film. I also sent a more scenes, but still the same result. People ¢ only s mouths are moving only. I saw the same scene in an official trailer and makes it sound for human voices. I give me know what, but ita s just something that popcornflix messed up and needs to do it fixed asap.also the announcements are waaaaay too long and too frequent. Every 10 to 15 minutes, I have 2 ads that are 30 seconds along each. Sometimes even 40 seconds and the other 30 seconds. If Ia M lucky I get 1 announcement that is just 5 seconds and the other 30 seconds, but this is rare. It's just destroyed of mood. Although it is free S, IA M considering the elimination of this application due to its strong repetitive system.
